Historic Elkhart Hill Tours – Saturday September 25, 2010

Elkhart, IL—The final public tours of Elkhart Hill in 2010 will be Saturday, September 25. The tour includes historical and political sites, Elkhart and Latham cemeteries, and will stop at the Governor Oglesby mausoleum and the Captain Bogardus grave site.

Tours will depart from downtown Elkhart at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Participants will be riding in the Elkhart Historical Society's tour wagon. Reservations are required. Each outing will last approximately 90 minutes. The cost is $10 for adults, $7.50 for seniors (60 and over), and $5 for children (12 and under). Registration closes on September 20. For more information and the online, printable reservation form, see www.elkharthistoricalsociety.org.
