

"Elkhart Hill: A Geological Perspective"

Elkhart Historical Society Dinner Lecture Series

Friday, October 22, 2010

5:30 - 8:00 p.m.

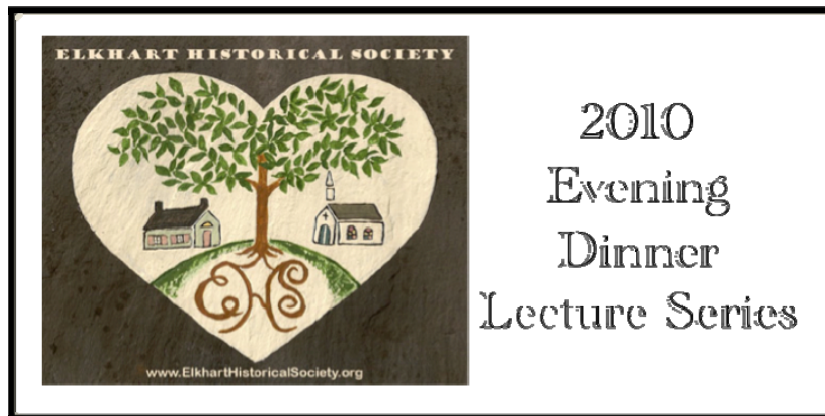

At The Wild Hare Café in historic downtown Elkhart, Illinois

Reservation forms available at www.elkharthistoricalsociety.org

Reservations must be received by October 18, 2010

Have you ever wondered why Elkhart Hill dominates the Logan County landscape? Paul Lee will explore the geologic processes that "kame" together to form the hill and answer your questions about local geology. Lee has a BS in Geology and a MS in Geohydrology from Illinois State University, is a member of the American Institute of Professional Geologists and the National Groundwater Association, and is a licensed geologist in four states.

Dinner begins at 5:30 p.m., with the talk from 7-8:00 p.m. Reservations and pre-payment are required and space is limited. Cost is $17.99 per person. The dinner package includes the meal, dessert, drink (coffee or tea), tax and gratuity. Reservation deadline is Monday, October 18, 2010. Online, printable reservation form at www.elkharthistoricalsociety.org or call 217-947-2046.

"Elkhart-Little Village, Big Stories" Tour

Saturday, October 23, 2010

9:30 a.m. or 1:30 p.m.

Register Early! Registration closes on October 18.

$10 for adults, $7.50 for seniors (over 60), $5 for children (12 and younger)

A new tour experience, "Elkhart - Little Village, Big Stories," is a wagon ride tour through the village with humorous folklore about Elkhart's people, places and things. Tours last approximately one hour. To register - mail the online, printable form at <http://www.elkharthistoricalsociety.org/>